Irish Language Journalist of the Year Eoghan Ó Néill will give a talk on the revival of our native language in Belfast. He will particularly pick out the important role played by Protestant and West Belfast Irish speakers amongst others. There will be time for questions and answers afterwards.

Playing for God? – When Faith and Sport come together- St. Oliver Plunkett Parish Hall, Glenveagh Drive, Lenadoon - Thursday 4th August 2011, 7pm

Antrim football star Paddy Cunningham and former Manchester United soccer player Philip Mulryne form the panel to discuss the role (if any) of faith in sport today. While sports stars are often in the news for all the wrong reasons, these two positive role models are looked up to by young people throughout Ireland. There will be time for questions and answers afterwards.

The 8th Annual St. Oliver Plunkett Lecture - Social Justice - role and limitations of State and Church - St. Oliver Plunkett Church, Glenveagh Drive, Lenadoon - Sunday 7th August 2011, 7pm

Jesuit priest Fr. Peter McVerry has been working with Dublin's young homeless for over 30 years. He is known throughout Ireland, and further a field, as a champion of those on the edges of society. His book "Jesus: Social Revolutionary?" challenged Christian churches to re-examine their priorities, saying that social justice should be at the heart of all they preach and do. This year's Lecture is sure to be interesting, testing and above all, provocative!
