Invitation to Local Author Events in Falls Road Library Libraries NI has announced that Falls Road Library will be holding three events in the autumn with local author Bobby Devlin, which adults are invited to come along to enjoy. The Judges Daughter event will take place on Monday 17th October, when Bobby will recall the events surrounding the Patricia Curran murder. Patricia Curran was the daughter of a leading judge. A young soldier was convicted of her killing, but cleared nearly 50 years later. The mystery has never been solved. This event will take place from 6.00pm – 7:00pm. The final event in the series, Relive the Falls Road during the 1950s, will take place on Monday 14th November, from 6.00pm - 7:00pm. You are invited to come along and join Bobby for an evening of chat and humour, as he reminisces about the Falls Road during the Rock and Roll era. Bobby Devlin was born and reared in Conway Street (Falls Rd) and went to Milford Street Primary School until he was 14, when he left to work in Andrew's Flour Mills. Bobby joined the R.A.F. as a teenager and did a five year engagement and after this, he was employed as a postman in Belfast's GPO. He was interned from 1972 - 1974. Bobby still lives in Belfast. Admission to these events is free and everyone is welcome to enjoy these evening events. You can contact Falls Road Library (49 Falls Road, BT12 4PD), on telephone number: 028 9050 9212 or email: fallsroad.library@librariesni.org.uk

If you are interested in volunteering or need any further details, please ring Jayne, the volunteer coordinator NOW on 028 9043 6400.

Talk on preventing suicide and self-harm

RTE Person of the Year award winner Joan Freeman will speak on this subject in St. Gemma's Girls' High School, Ardilea Street, Oldpark Road, on Thursday 27th October from 7.30 to 9.00 p.m. Joan gave up her private psychotherapy practice to research the causes of suicide and self-harm. She then opened Pieta House in Dublin in 2006, with six qualified therapists, to help people who are self-harming or suicidal. There are currently five Pieta centres in the Republic of Ireland. Joan has great experience with and understanding of the issues of suicide and self-harm and has many insights to give families coping with them. All are welcome to this evening.
